

Beautification of Car Streets

All the four Car streets around the temple were looking ugly as people have not coloured / painted their shops and houses for years. Adwaita Lakshmi group, Coimbatore came forward and supplied different colours for painting. As a part of 'Green Rameswaram' initiative, we carried out the painting of the shops and houses.

Before

After

